Seating of New Board Member

Board President Tamara Neumann administered the oath of office to newly appointed board member Lori Linck.

Personnel

The Board approved 5 appointments and 3 resignations. Administrator contracts and ESP hourly rate increases were also approved.

Superintendent's Report

Dr. Buchanan congratulated Mr. Starck-King and the district staff for successful implementation of the new online registration and residency verification process. To date 93% of the District 34 students' residency has been verified. Dr. Buchanan reminded the Board of the August 7, 2013 Board of Education Safety Committee Meeting and the upcoming early September Board of Education Strategic Plan Committee Meeting.

Action Items

The Board approved the award of the FY2014 fuel purchases to Petroleum Traders and to Avalon Petroleum.

Policies

The Board approved revisions to policies: 4:15-Identity Protection; 4:140-Waiver of Student Fees; 4:170-Safety; 5:260-Student Teachers and 5:330-Sick Days, Vacation, Holidays, and Leaves.

Master Facilities Plan Update

Mr. Starck-King discussed with the Board future topics to bring to the monthly meetings. Ideas such as funding options, timelines and grade configurations were presented as viable topics.

Teaching & Learning Update

Mrs. Jennifer Stoeber updated the Board on the status of curriculum guides and summer professional development activities for district staff.
