

Respect Contract

Office of the Illinois Attorney General

I agree not to use technology to harass, threaten, embarrass, or humiliate another person.

I agree to respect myself, my parents, my teachers, and my peers while using the Internet or my cell phone.

I agree not to use obscene or lewd language on the Internet or on my cell phone.

I agree not to send or display offensive pictures.

I agree not to use someone else's password.

I agree that I will not give my password to another person, other than my parent or guardian.

I agree that I will ignore a mean or threatening message.

I agree that I will block the sender if I receive a mean or threatening message.

I agree that I will tell a parent, teacher, counselor, or police officer if I receive a mean or threatening e-mail, text, or instant message that makes me feel uncomfortable.

I agree that I will tell a parent, teacher, counselor, or police officer if I know that another person is being cyberbullied.

I agree that I will review a message, before I send it, to make sure the following are true:

- My meaning is clear and does not insult, harass or threaten anyone.
- I am using proper etiquette.
- If the message was sent to my grandmother, she would not be offended.
